

The “E-Biz Card”

The E-Biz Card package is perfect if you want to promote certain aspects of your business.

In the picture to the left, this company wanted to promote their business contact information which is displayed at the bottom.

If you are starting a business this is a good way to show off your business while you get your business operating. It works much better than an “Under Construction” sign which can cause the Search Engines to overlook you. They frown on sites that have pages that say “Under Construction”, “Coming Soon” or any message which looks like the site is unfinished.
